

CLU Economist to Speak at CoLAB Meet

CoLAB Ventura County announced that Bill Watkins, executive director of California Lutheran University's Center for Economic Research and Forecasting (CERF), will be the keynote speaker at CoLAB's annual meeting on October 17.

WHEN: October 17th, 2013 – 5:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

WHERE: Peterson Barn, 3072 Los Angeles Ave., Somis

Watkins is a respected economic forecaster who looks at population trends, regulations, workforce issues and other factors that determine economic health. He has focused on four key issues that have impacted county businesses struggling to recover from the recession: delay, uncertainty, regulation and taxes. Watkins is known for his provocative views on the economy.

Hosted Wine and Beer Bar, Chicken and tri tip BBQ, $30.00 per person
